

Create and login to IBM Account

The screenshot shows the IBM login page in a web browser. The browser's address bar displays the URL: <https://login.ibm.com/risk/v3.0/authz/pages/compute?Target=https%3A%2F%2Flogin.ibm.com%2Foidc%2Fendpoint%2Fdefault%2Fauthorize%3Fqsld%3D338354e...>. The page features the IBM logo at the top left. The main heading is "Log in to IBM", followed by the text "Logging in as syedakkealsaj26@psnacet.edu.in Not you?". Below this is a password input field with a "Forgot password?" link. A "Remember me" checkbox is checked. A "Please wait" indicator is shown. At the bottom, there is a link to "Create an IBMid" for users who don't have an account, and a link to "Contact the IBMid help desk". The footer includes links for "Contact", "Privacy", "Terms of use", "Accessibility", and "Cookie preferences", along with the text "Powered by IBM Security Verify".

The screenshot shows the IBM Cloud dashboard. The browser's address bar displays the URL: <https://cloud.ibm.com>. The dashboard has a dark theme. At the top, there is a search bar and navigation links for "Catalog", "Manage", and "SYED AKKEAL JUNIAT...". The main section is titled "Dashboard" and includes links for "Edit dashboard", "Upgrade account", and "Create resource". Below this, there is a "For you" section with a "Select an option" dropdown. The "For you" section contains several cards: "Build" (Explore IBM Cloud with this selection of easy starter tutorials and services.), "Set up your IBM Cloud account" (Learn how to set up your IBM Cloud account, manage your account settings, organize resources, and control access to those resources.), "Get Started with Watson Studio" (Get started with using AI and Cloud Object Storage in 15 minutes.), "Build a data lake" (Create a data lake using Object Storage and query it in its native format with SQL Query and Watson Studio.), "Create an OpenShift cluster" (Deploy apps on highly available clusters with Red Hat OpenShift on IBM Cloud.), and "Get started with IBM Cloud" (Get up, Discover, tutorial and co working.). Each card has a "Getting started" button and a time estimate. At the bottom, there is a "User access" section with a "Manage users" link, a "News" section with a "View all" link, and a "Planned maintenance" section with a "View all" link. The footer includes the text "Enter email addresses below to jump directly into the invite user setup:" and "All About IBM Storage's Price and Supply Guarantee".
